

Bullying, Harassment and Sexual Misconduct: A Quick Guide

What is Bullying, Harassment and Sexual Misconduct?

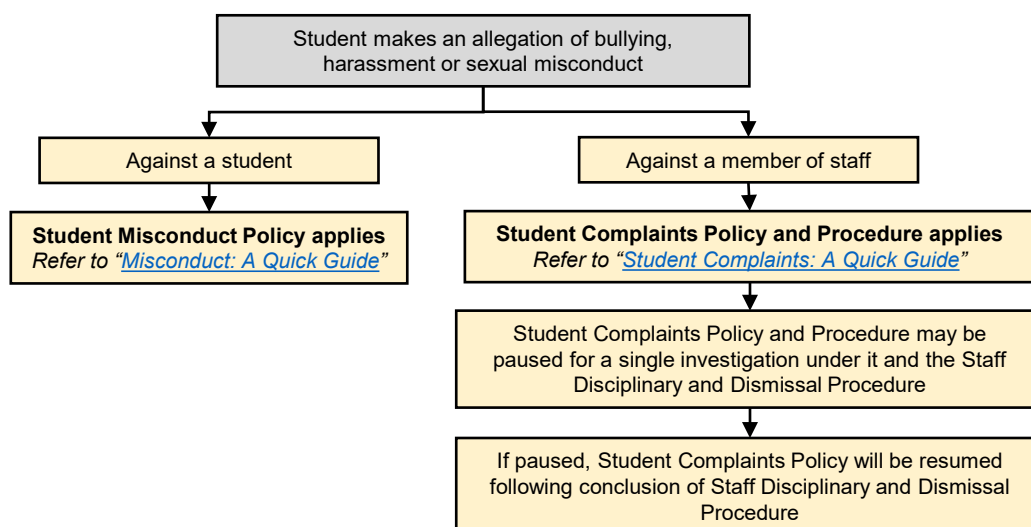

Bullying: can be defined as offensive, intimidating, malicious or insulting behaviour. It can be an abuse or misuse of power through means that undermine, humiliate, denigrate or injure the recipient.

Harassment: including sexual harassment or discrimination by harassment, includes unwanted behaviour or conduct which has the purpose or effect of violating a person's dignity or creating an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment because of, or connected to, one or more of the following protected characteristics: age; disability; gender reassignment; pregnancy and maternity; race; religion or belief; sex; and sexual orientation.

Sexual Misconduct: is defined as any unwanted or attempted unwanted conduct of a sexual nature. This includes, but is not limited to sexual harassment, sexual assault and rape.

Refer to the Bullying, Harassment and Sexual Misconduct Policy for more information, including examples of bullying, harassment and sexual misconduct.
